Food Policy

Renters are required to use North Branch for all catering needs of core meal needs.

North Branch has signed and agreed to the terms of our Glenview Park District Catering Agreement and train their staff on the policies and procedures accordingly.

Snack items, desserts and some beverages may be brought in from outside vendors. Core meal and beverage items that are available through either Joe Donut or North Branch must be purchased through their catering menus.

Core meal items include coffee, donuts, bagels, sandwiches, pizza, pasta, party trays, burgers, tacos, wings, salads, etc. Questions on core meal items should be addressed with restaurant management ahead of time.

If core meal items are brought in from the outside and the appropriate catering avenue is not utilized, a $200 charge will be collected using the card on file.

If you have any questions about their menu or would like to begin placing your order, please use events@northbranchglenview.com or (847)-813-6400.
