

Host	Summary	Date
The Grove/Glenview Park District	Sustainability: lessons from the past — long before recycling bins and reusable bags existed, pioneer families practiced practical, resourceful sustainability out of necessity, offering simple lessons we can still apply today.	June 20, 2026
The Electric Home Company	A company that helps people electrify their home.	June 27, 2026
Working Bikes	Working Bikes is a 26 year old nonprofit that repairs and redistrib	July 11, 2026
Greener Glenview	New projects and programs of Greener Glenview--composting drop off, compost at school lunchroom, gas powered leaf blower issue, recycling latest tips.	July 25, 2026
Solid Waste Agency of Northern Cook County (SWANCC)	Recycling correctly: curbside and special material drop-off progr	August 15, 2026
Commissioner Scott Britton / 14th District (CC Forest Preserve)	Information about the Cook County Forest Preserves and County	August 22, 2026
The Urban Canopy	Information about container swap composting services for homes and businesses.	August 29, 2026
Tree Keepers	Tree Keeper sapling tree distribution.	September 12, 2026
The Grove/Glenview Park District	Community Stewardship: Saving The Grove Together — The Grove Folk Fest began as a thank-you to Glenview residents who voted to save The Grove, and the Green Table highlights how community action, environmental stewardship, and individual choices can protect natural spaces today while continuing this tradition at the festival.	September 26, 2026
The Rotary Club of Glenview Sunrise	A display of Club activities in support of local environmental initi	October 24, 2026